INTRODUCTION - 2

CLOSE

This is Margaret Patterson. Tune in again Sunday, October 9, when Mr. Eric Newman, age 72, Vice President and Secretary, Edison Brothers Stores, Inc. will be our guest. At age 10 Mr. Newman started collecting coins (as you probably did too).

His interest in numismatics has been a life time hobby. Part of his extensive collection of coins and currency can be viewed by the public in the Money Museum at The Mercantile Trust Company, Seventh Street and Washington Avenue.

Mr. Newman will explain "How Money Collections Reflect History, Art and Culture of our Time and the Past"

Earlier this fall various volunteers on the Retiree Staff reported how they spent the summer holiday. Mrs. Beatrice Kornblum and Ray Buchan have been so busy travelling we have had to wait for their reports on the many Elderhostels each has attended and their other vacation trips. They will be with us next week to compare notes and give you some hints for next summer planning - or even for the winter months.

TAG

Creative Aging is produced weekly by the News and Public Affairs Department of KWMU as part of the College of Arts and Sciences Continuing Education-Extension program of the University of Missouri-St. Louis. All members of the volunteer staff are retirees. Our engineer is Rex Bauer, a member of the KWMU staff.
